(1) No mere power need under the recently amended rule to remove disqualification yet it is a matter for consideration if in view of the circumstances which necessitated the dismissal of the petitioner from service nearly twelve years ago, the disqualification may be removed. The charge against him, was of quite a serious nature though there was no charge of corruption yet there was one of brutal torture of a man under custody. This is always a serious charge against a policeman but it is not clear from the records on the file if the petitioner was given a chance of explaining his conduct. If he was this explanation was not satisfactory or acceptable, I do not think it desirable to remove the disqualification. Otherwise the petitioner may be given a chance.

dismissal, the essential principle that the explanation of the Offr. concerned should be on record, could not have been ignored.

2). Para 4 of the Dr Comr's order would also indicate that such explanation was taken. It makes reference to "the Offr's audacious mendacity in ignoring all knowledge of facts" &c. 3). The Dr Comr's order was appealed against and confirmed by the Dy: of Police, strengthening the presumption that there could have been no omission in the matter of taking the Offr's explⁿ. 4) The petr himself does not advance the plea in questioning the correctness of the order of dismissal. He mentions other grounds, but does not say anything about his explⁿ not having been taken.

Final Note by the Second Member of Council.

Subject:—

Prayer of Mr. V.S. Sanjiva Rao, Press Correspondent, for permission to stand for election to the District Board, Kadur and the Representative Assembly.

Mr. V.S. Sanjiva Rao, who was a Second Grade Police Jamadar, was dismissed from Government service in 1908, on account of the brutal torture of a man under custody. He now prays that this disability, viz., dismissal from Government service, has prevented him from becoming a Member of the District Boards and the Representative Assembly and that it may be removed so as to make him eligible for Membership to the aforesaid bodies.

2. As from the records of the case, it was clear that the explanation of Mr. Sanjiva Rao was not taken before the order of dismissal was passed, I expressed the following opinion when the file was first submitted to me:-

"It is generally inexpedient to modify orders deliberately passed in the past. But, in the present instance, some consideration may be shown in view of the circumstance that the order was passed without any explanation being called for from the person concerned and many years have elapsed since."

3. The subject was subsequently considered in Council on 30th September 1920 when it was resolved that "Council are not in favour of the disability being removed in the circumstances of this case". I had to modify my view when I became aware of the circumstance which lead to the dismissal. The Third Member of Council, however, dissents from this opinion as he is of opinion that the offence for which Mr. Sanjiva Rao was dismissed does not involve moral turpitude.

4. The recommendation of the Council may be graciously approved.
